NEIL J. GILLESPIE

Petitioner,

Case No.: SC11-1622

Lower Tribunal No(s): 2D10-5197, vs.

BARKER, RODEMS & COOK, P.A. and WILLIAM J. COOK,

Respondents.

AFFIDAVIT OF NEIL J. GILLESPIE

Representation by attorney Eugene P. Castagliuolo, FL Bar ID no. 104360

I, Neil J. Gillespie, under oath, testify as follows:

1. My name is Neil J. Gillespie, and I am over eighteen years of age. This affidavit is given on personal knowledge unless otherwise expressly stated.
2. Circuit Judge James Arnold issued an arrest warrant for me June 1, 2011 for civil contempt on a writ of bodily attachment sought by the Respondents, my former lawyers, in the above captioned litigation, for allegedly failing to attend a deposition. The Public Defender was appointed to represent me but Judge Arnold relieved counsel immediately prior to the contempt hearing and I had no representation.
3. On June 3, 2011 I hired attorney Eugene P. Castagliuolo from an ad on Craigslist (Exhibit 1) to prepare and represent me at the above referenced deposition. Castagliuolo responded to my Craigslist ad by email June 2, 2011 at 11.43 p.m. and wrote:

“Funny thing is.....my clients love me at depos, because I'm not very nice to my adversaries. I behave legally and ethically, but to me, it's like a street fight, and I act accordingly.”

“My number is below. Whether you call me or not, I wish you all the best.....Eugene”

Mr. Castagliuolo’s email states that the Castagliuolo Law Group is a debt relief agency helping people to file for bankruptcy relief. (Exhibit 2). A copy of our $1,000 flat fee agreement is attached as Exhibit 3.

I paid Mr. Castagliuolo the full $1,000 flat fee in advance from my monthly disability income, and signed the agreement at his Clearwater office. The flat fee agreement states:

“Representation limited to preparation for and attendance at deposition, the date of which has yet to be determined.” Exhibit 3.

4. Mr. Castagliuolo failed to disclose a conflict with his daughter, attorney Maria E.

Castagliuolo who works for The Law Offices of Julianne M. Holt, Public Defender of the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit. The Public Defender was appointed to represent me before Judge Arnold June 1, 2011 for civil contempt but was hostile toward me as set forth in Exhibit 4,

Notice of Conflict. Ms. Holt refused to acknowledge the conflict in an email to me July 18, 2011.

Mr. Castagliuolo responded to me by email July 19, 2011 stating in part:

“Mr. Gillespie, I have just learned that you have contacted the employer of a member of my family. As soon as I finish typing this message, I am leaving my office to personally report your crime to the nearest substation of the Pinellas County Sheriff’s Office.”

My request for disclosure of conflict with the Public Defender was lawful. Maria Castagliuolo was promoted in her job shortly after her father secured a settlement agreement benefiting the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit, Florida in my lawsuit.

5. I have diabetes type II adult onset, and other disabilities, and gave notice of my disabilities to Mr. Castagliuolo by email June 4, 2011 at 7.50 p.m. with PDF copies of the following seven (7) ADA disability related documents: (Exhibit 5)

Plaintiff’s Accommodation Request, ADA, February 20, 2007

Plaintiff's Amended Accommodation Request, ADA, March 5, 2007
Dr. Karin Huffer, ADA Assessment & Report for Gillespie, February 17, 2010
Gillespie ADA accommodation request, 13 Judicial Circuit, February 19, 2010
Notice of Filing, ADA request of Gillespie, February 19, 2010
Dr. Huffer's letter, re Gillespie's disability, no ADA October 28, 2010
Verified Notice of Filing Disability Information of Gillespie, May 27, 2011

Mr. Castagliuolo was aware of my disabilities but failed to seek reasonable disability accommodations for me during the June 21, 2011 deposition.

6. Mr. Castagliuolo complained that Mr. Rodems and his staff failed to cooperate with him. Castagliuolo's email to Rodems Monday, June 6, 2011 at 2:29 p.m.: (Exhibit 6)

"Dear Mr. Rodems:

Please be advised that I've been hired for a limited purpose by Mr. Neil Gillespie relative to the above-specified case. This will also confirm the telephone message I left with your paralegal, Susan, a few minutes ago.

I would like to discuss this case with you at your earliest convenience. Probably the best time to reach me would be tomorrow from around 11 AM to approximately 12:30 PM. If that time frame works for you, I shall look forward to hearing from you then.

Thank you.....Eugene"

Mr. Rodems did not respond to Castagliuolo, so he sent Rodems another email Thursday, June 9, 2011 at 12.46 p.m.: (Exhibit 7)

"Dear Mr. Rodems:

I telephoned and e-mailed you on June 6, 2011 regarding the above-specified case. I also spoke with your paralegal, Susan, on that same date, and again approximately 45 minutes ago. I have not yet had the pleasure of your response.

Perhaps I can make my request a lot more simple: I am requesting a copy of the writ which apparently was docketed on June 1, 2011 (Mr. Gillespie has not received a copy of same). If you or your assistant would be so kind so as to attach a copy to an e-mail and shoot it over to me I would be most appreciative.

I am looking forward to your response. Thank you.....Eugene"

Mr. Rodems continued his refusal to cooperate with Mr. Castagliuolo, who in turn became angry as shown in his escalating emails to me. On Friday, June 10, 2011 at 3:43 p.m. Mr. Castagliuolo sent email to me stating "Last but not least, Rodems' useless assistant put me into his voicemail, where I left a professional but unhappy message."

7. On Tuesday, June 14, 2011 at 7:46 p.m. (and at other times) Mr. Castagliuolo offered me a plan for bankruptcy: (Exhibit 8)

"As for a new agreement, this is my suggestion. Give me another $1,000.00 on July 1, and I won't take another dime from you. Consider it a flat fee to get you out from under this writ (BUT WITHOUT entering an appearance in this state court case) and/or to file a Chapter 7 bankruptcy for you. The only other things you would have to pay for if we go the bankruptcy route (and these are NOT my fees, they are costs) is the filing fee of $299.00, a credit report fee of $30.00, and the credit counseling fee(s) which will be at most $80.00 (sometimes you can find a cheaper vendor). Based on what I know right now about your case, your debt to this asshole Rodems would be discharged in your Chapter 7 bankruptcy, and he would get NOTHING from you."

I agreed to bankruptcy and provided Mr. Castagliuolo a copy of "Assignment of Unliquidated Lawsuit Proceeds" (Exhibit 9) prepared in 2008 by attorney Jeffery Shelquist who did research and believed the assignment would survive my filing for bankruptcy, and allow the case to continue for adjudication on its merits. Mr. Castagliuolo did not mention bankruptcy again.

8. Mr. Castagliuolo failed to disclose that he has "mental problems" when I retained him.

During a telephone call with me June 14, 2011 at 12:38 p.m. Castagliuolo stated:

"You know, I don't make any judgments about people based on what their mental problems are. Because if you -- if you're going to measure people by that yardstick then I'm not going to pass the test either."
(Exhibit 10, Transcript, pages 7-8, line 23)

Mr. Castagliuolo notified me by email Monday, June 13, 2011 at 2:14 p.m.:

"Please also be aware, well in advance, that I will be out of the office the last week of July and the first week of August. Probably more time because they just found a lesion on my kidney. This is how it started for my brother, and it ended with him being dead at age 45. So I don't walk around afraid, that's not my style, but let's just say I'm concerned. All the more reason why I want to get this writ off your back ASAP." (Exhibit 11)

Mr. Castagliuolo notified me by email June 15, 2011 10:03 p.m. that he planned to argue his own "health issues" to Judge Arnold at the hearing the next day:

"The game plan is this: "Judge, I've prevailed upon Mr. Gillespie to appear for a deposition. Due to his health issues and my health issues, I am requesting 60 days to get this done. Will you please vacate/quash the writ, with a specific instruction to law enforcement to rescind the warrant ?"" (Exhibit 12)

I believe Mr. Castagliuolo's disabilities prevented him from effectively representing me. On June 21, 2011 Mr. Castagliuolo was distracted over the health of a child, possibly a family member, and was mumbling in fragmented speech to himself about the matter.

9. Mr. Castagliuolo complained that he was not earning his usual hourly rate of $295 per hour under our flat fee agreement. At one point Castagliuolo demanded $5,000 from me. Mr. Castagliuolo became more and more angry, so I terminated him as counsel by email June 9, 2011 at 12.44 p.m. Mr. Rodems was not cooperating with Castagliuolo which added time and difficulty to the representation. In response Mr. Castagliuolo threatened me by email Thursday, June 09, 2011 at 12:51 p.m.: (Exhibit 13)

"Dear Mr. Gillespie:

Under no circumstances will I be refunding any fee paid to me by you on Friday, June 3, 2011. In that you have discharged me as your attorney, please do not contact me again by any manner whatsoever except through counsel.

Should you insist in contacting me again without the assistance of counsel, I shall immediately report your contact to law enforcement and I shall prosecute you to the full extent of the criminal law. I'm a former prosecutor, so If you think I'm bluffing, please try me.

YOU HAVE BEEN FOREWARNED. CONDUCT YOURSELF ACCORDINGLY.

Eugene P. Castagliuolo"

10. Mr. Castagliuolo sent me another email June 9, 2011 at 1.16 p.m. apologizing for his threat made 29 minutes earlier. (Exhibit 14). Castagliuolo refused to refund any portion of my fees. Since an active arrest warrant was outstanding against me, I had no viable alternatives to hire other counsel, and consented to Castagliuolo's later requests for a promise of more money.

Castagliuolo also wrote:

"I want to get this guy off your back, but as you know well by now, the wheels of justice move slowly. What's more, Rodems has not even extended me the professional courtesy of returning my telephone calls. So if you want me to help you, we'll have to do it another way. But it all starts with obtaining a copy of that writ." (Exhibit 14)

Mr. Rodems was not cooperating with counsel. Castagliuolo claimed was not able to obtain a copy of the writ of bodily attachment.

11. Mr. Castagliuolo notified me by email Wednesday, June 15, 2011 at 7:43 p.m. that he would no longer represent me after the hearing June 16, 2011 to vacate the writ of bodily attachment. (Exhibit 15). Castagliuolo wrote in part:

"My sole role tomorrow, after which I shall be finished as your lawyer, shall be to do my utmost best to prevail upon the kindness of Judge Arnold to vacate the writ and resultant arrest warrant.... Tomorrow, I will be your staunch advocate, but after tomorrow, my role in this matter will be over."

12. I voluntarily appeared June 21, 2011 for a deposition at the Edgecomb Courthouse in Tampa to purge the civil contempt and rescind the arrest warrant. Mr. Castagliuolo arrived separately. I was taken into custody and involuntarily confined by two Hillsborough County Sheriff's Deputies, Deputy Randy Olding and Deputy Larry Berg, for the duration of the deposition. I was not given anything to eat during the time I was involuntarily confined. The deposition went from about 10:30 a.m. through approximately 3:00 p.m. and did not break for lunch. My last meal was at McDonald's, about 20 minutes before arriving at the Twiggs Street Garage across from the courthouse at 6:47 a.m.

13. On June 21, 2011 I was talking the following medication prescribed by my doctor:

a. Lisinopril 20mg, one a day for high blood pressure.

b. Hydrochlorothiazide 25mg, one a day for high blood pressure.

c. Metformin 1000 MG, one twice a day for type 2 diabetes. (Note: Metformin was insufficient to control my diabetes, and on September 29, 2011 my doctor prescribed Glipizide, 5 mg, one twice a day, in addition to Metformin).

14. The June 21, 2011 deposition transcript shows at page 118:

21 [GILLESPIE] I need to use the restroom again.
23 (Recess from 1:41 p.m. to 2:12 p.m.)

At 1:41 p.m. I felt the urge to urinate and went to the restroom flanked by Deputy Randy Olding and Deputy Larry Berg. However I was unable to urinate. One of the deputies knocked on the door and asked if I was all right. I felt cold and confused and left the restroom without urinating and returned to the deposition room.

15. When I returned from the restroom, Mr. Rodems made a number of threats to me in response to a question from Mr. Castagliuolo to Rodems about how long the deposition would continue and whether I would be incarcerated that night. Ms. Himes, the court reporter, was present while Mr. Rodems threatened me, but she did not report this in the transcript. My recollection of Mr. Rodems' threats is memorialized in paragraph 27 of "Plaintiff Neil J. Gillespie's Motion To Strike Or Set Aside Mr. Rodems' Notice of Assignment Of Claims And Motion For Dismissal of Action With Prejudice, and Motion To Strike Or Set Aside Settlement Agreement And General Mutual Release" submitted June 30, 2011 in Gillespie v. Thirteenth Judicial Circuit, Florida, et al, Case No. 5:10-cv-00503, US District Court, Middle District of Florida, Ocala Division [Docket 33]:

"Mr. Rodems also launched a new round of threats against Gillespie. Mr. Rodems stated that he had accumulated 130 hours of attorneys fees responding to Gillespie's pleadings that Rodems considered inappropriate. Rodems said he would seek sanctions against Gillespie for 130 hours of attorneys fees. In the past the Court awarded Mr. Rodems $11,550 in sanctions at $350 per hour in attorney's fees for Gillespie's discovery errors and a misplaced defense of economic loss to Rodems' libel counterclaim (at footnote 26, The libel counterclaim was an abuse of process, which Rodems later dismissed.) Based upon Rodems' threat, 130 hours of sanctions would amount to $45,500. Mr. Rodems also threatened something about bringing the Marion County Sheriff to Gillespie's home in his effort to collect a judgment for attorney's fees. And Rodems made reference to Gillespie wearing "orange pajamas" issued by the HCSO. The details of the threats were not clear to Gillespie because he was disoriented and Rodems was yelling at a fast pace."

16. Mr. Castagliuolo asked to go off the record, page 131, line 4 to discuss the removal of my disability information from the court file. A recess from 2:24 p.m. to 2:57 p.m. was reported by Ms. Himes, page 131, line 6. Another closed-door hearing was held in Judge Arnold's chambers attended only by the Judge, Mr. Rodems and Mr. Castagliuolo. The hearing was not reported by Ms. Himes. When Mr. Castagliuolo returned from the hearing, he told me the case has gone on too long and "Judges have mud on their shoes". This was not reported by Ms. Himes. Mr. Castagliuolo did not further explain his bizarre comment, but it appeared Castagliuolo was threatened or intimidated during the closed-door hearing, and his demeanor worsened.

17. I was confused and signed a "walk-away" settlement agreement while in a diminished state June 21, 2011. Once I was released from custody, left the courthouse, and had a meal, my senses returned and I realized that signing the settlement agreement was a mistake. I promptly gave written notice that I disaffirmed the settlement agreement to Mr. Rodems, Mr. Castagliuolo and HCSO Major Livingston.

18. Mr. Castagliuolo refused to discuss the deposition or settlement agreement after I left the courthouse June 21, 2011. Instead Castagliuolo demanded that I pay him $1,000 on July 1, 2011.

19. Mr. Castagliuolo threatened me by email Thursday, June 30, 2011 at 5:01 p.m. in response to receiving court documents in the federal lawsuit, case 5:10-cv-00503, docket items 33 and 34. Mr. Castagliuolo wrote:

"Was able to see a small part of 2nd attachment. My response to the Court will be forthcoming next week. From this point forward, communicate with me only via US Mail. Any other form will be reported to Marion County Sheriff as criminal harassment, & trust me, I will prosecute.” (Exhibit 16).

Mr. Castagliuolo sent me another email Friday, July 01, 2011 at 11:37 a.m. stating “My response to the foregoing pleadings is being mailed to you via certified mail today”

20. Mr. Castagliuolo threatened me in a letter dated July 1, 2011 with criminal prosecution under section 812.012(6)(b), Florida Statutes, and section 772.11 Florida Statutes (2011).

Castagliuolo’s threat was sent by USPS Certified Mail, Article No. 7009-2820-0000-5183-3510. (Exhibit 17). Castagliuolo wrote:

“YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that you have obtained professional services from me by false pretenses, fraud, and/or deception, in violation of Florida Statute 812.012(6)(b), for which you owe me $1,000.00, as you promised and agreed to pay me. Section 772.11 Florida Statutes (2011) permits me to make claim against you for triple the amount of damages sustained by me by my deprivation by you of the sum total of $1,000.00. TRIPLE THE SUM OF $1,000.00 IS $3,000.00.

This is my demand that you pay me the sum of $1,000.00 within 30 days after your receipt of this notice.” (Exhibit 17)

21. Pro bono counsel Danialle Riggins of Ocala, Florida, referred to me unofficially by NAMI, the National Alliance on Mental Illness, advised me that Castagliuolo’s threat of criminal prosecution was not legitimate and that I did not violate any criminal statutes. In turn I notified Mr. Castagliuolo by certified letter. (Exhibit 18).

22. Mr. Castagliuolo threatened me again by certified letter dated August 5, 2011, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 19.

“Dear Mr. Gillespie:

Pursuant to the Civil Theft Notice which was served upon you via Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, on July 5, 2011, you had thirty (30) days thereafter to comply with the demand contained in said Notice. Accordingly, your compliance was required no later than August 4, 2011. Today is August 5, 2011, and you have failed to comply. Furthermore, you faxed me a letter yesterday in which you stated explicitly that you “decline payment.” Therefore, given the foregoing facts and circumstances, my Civil Theft Claim against you has been perfected, and you are now indebted to me in the amount of $3,000.00 (THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS).

You can count on me to aggressively pursue collection of that sum from you. However, in an effort to avoid further litigation and to put a permanent end to our relationship, I am making a one-time, non-negotiable settlement offer to you, as follows: I will accept $500.00 from you in full satisfaction of my claim against you for attorneys' fees due and owing, as long as I am in receipt of said sum on or before November 11, 2011. This expansive deadline for acceptance is designed to give you plenty of time to accumulate that sum.

You can accept my offer by simply tendering $500.00 to me on or before November 11, 2011. If you fail to do so, then you will have rejected my offer, and in that event, I shall file suit against you to recover the full $3,000.00 that you owe me on Monday, November 14, 2011. I have been very successful collecting unpaid attorneys' fees, and I am quite confident that I will be equally successful obtaining a judgment against you. If you think I'm bluffing, try me.

OTHER THAN TO ACCEPT MY OFFER AS SPECIFIED ABOVE OR TO CONTACT ME THROUGH YOUR ATTORNEY, YOU ARE HEREBY WARNED NOT TO CONTACT ME YOURSELF VIA ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER. YOU ARE FURTHER WARNED THAT I SHALL TAKE APPROPRIATE ACTION IF I SHOULD SEE ANYTHING ABOUT ME ON YOUR RIDICULOUS WEBSITE. YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED. CONDUCT YOURSELF ACCORDINGLY.

Sincerely,

EUGENE P. CASTAGLIUOLO" (Exhibit 19)

23. Mr. Castagliuolo threatened me again by email August 12, 2011 at 12:10 p.m. on the mistaken belief that I was "hiding from the mailman" because I was not home to sign for the certified letter cited above from Castagliuolo with threat of a lawsuit: (Exhibit 20)

"Dear Mr. Gillespie:

As I anticipated, you're cowering in your house behind masked windows, hiding from the mailman, and refusing to accept my certified mail. No worries, I'm flexible and resourceful, so please find it attached to this e-mail.

Oh, and by the way, I have instructed the support staff in my building to refuse your certified mail. Similarly, you are hereby advised that you are not to ever again send me ANYTHING via facsimile transmission. Should you persist in doing so, I will report your willful ignorance of my demand to the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office. Thank you." (Exhibit 20)

I retrieved the letter from the post office in a timely manner.

24. It appears Mr. Castagliuolo himself does not understand the terms of the so-called "walk away" settlement agreement that he recommend I sign June 21, 2011 while confused and in a diminished state. The agreement appears to preclude his claims against me.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.

Dated this 6th day of January 6, 2012.

I will pay $1,000 cash to a Florida licensed attorney in good standing to represent me at a deposition duces tecum in Tampa ASAP. This is civil litigation. $1,000 represents more than half my monthly income. (I will pay more if you accept terms for the balance). I need prep time too.

This is urgent, I'm facing a writ of bodily attachment otherwise. Thank you.

Notice of Conflict: Eugene P. Castagliuolo, Maria E. Castagliuolo, and
The Law Offices of Julianne M. Holt, Public Defender of the 13th Judicial Circuit

1. Mr. Castagliuolo failed to disclose a conflict with his daughter, attorney Maria E. Castagliuolo who works for The Law Offices of Julianne M. Holt, Public Defender of the 13th Judicial Circuit. Gillespie first visited the Public Defender May 24, 2011 and spoke with attorney Moira Freeman about his case, and provided Ms. Freeman a cover letter and copy of Plaintiff's Motion For Appointment of Counsel, ADA Accommodation Request, and Memorandum of Law, filed May 24, 2011. The Public Defender was appointed to represent Gillespie May 27, 2011 by Allison Raistrick of Clerk's Indigent Screening Unit, and Gillespie paid the $50 indigent fee.
2. Gillespie met attorney Anthony Lopez May 27, 2011, the Public Defender supervisor of Moira Freeman. After a short discussion, Mr. Lopez said he would not recognize the Clerk's appointment of the Public Defender to represent Gillespie. Mr. Lopez was hostile toward Gillespie, accused him of "forcing" documents on Ms. Freeman, and said he can't take the case until appointed by the judge. Gillespie provided Mr. Lopez a copy of his Verified Notice of Filing Disability Information of Neil J. Gillespie, filed May 27, 2011, as certified in the certificate of service. Mr. Lopez picked up the pleading, along with others, left his office, and threw the documents on a chair in the lobby of the Public Defender's office.
3. Attorney Mike Peacock of the Public Defender's office appeared June 1, 2011 before Judge Arnold on a hearing for Gillespie to show cause on contempt with arrest on a writ of bodily attachment. Mr. Peacock filed Office of the Public Defender's Motion For Clarification seeking relief from representing Gillespie. The Court granted the motion relieving the Public Defender from representing Gillespie. Gillespie had no representation and the Court issued a warrant to arrest Gillespie on a writ of bodily attachment. A transcript of this hearing is available. Gillespie was not timely provided a copy of the writ by the Court, Mr. Rodems or the Public Defender. HCSO Major Livingston provided Gillespie a copy of the writ June 23, 2011 only after Gillespie was released from custody.

4. On July 15, 2011 Gillespie requested by email and phone call a conflict check with the Public Defender's office and its employee attorney Maria E. Castagliuolo and Mr. Castagliuolo, for shared consanguinity to the third degree. (NOTE: Maria E. Castagliuolo and Eugene P. Castagliuolo are the only attorneys listed in the Florida Bar directory with the Castagliuolo surname). The phone call only revealed that Maria E. Castagliuolo was recently promoted to the felony unit. An email response July 18, 2011 from Julianne M. Holt, the Public Defender, stated:

“Without further explanation for your request, I do not feel it is appropriate to respond to this request.”

5. It appears from the foregoing that the Public Defender was at all times hostile and opposed to representing Gillespie in this matter, due to his accusations against the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit for the misuse and denial of judicial process. The Office of the Public Defender is located across the street from the Edgcomb Courthouse of the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit. Attorneys from the Public Defender regularly appear before judges of the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit. Representing Gillespie would create discord in that relationship.

6. On July 19, 2011 Gillespie received a threatening email from Mr. Castagliuolo that stated:

Mr. Gillespie, I have just learned that you have contacted the employer of a member of my family. As soon as I finish typing this message, I am leaving my office to personally report your crime to the nearest substation of the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office.

BE FOREWARNED TO AVOID ANY FURTHER CONTACT WITH ME OR WITH ANY MEMBER OF MY FAMILY OR WITH ANYONE CONNECTED WITH MY FAMILY, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO ANY EMPLOYERS.

7. Clearly Gillespie's request for disclosure of conflict with the Public Defender was a lawful and usual part of the ordinary business of law. Mr. Castagliuolo's threatening response suggests he has been working as a shill against Gillespie's interests. This is the fourth separate threat Castagliuolo has made against Gillespie. None of the threats were justified. The threats call into question Mr. Castagliuolo's mental state and his fitness to practice law.

8. Attachments:

Dear Ms. Holt:

This is a request for an attorney to represent me in a civil contempt hearing with a threat of incarceration. The Order To Show Cause hearing is set for June 1, 2011 at 11:00AM before Judge James Arnold in Gillespie v. Barker, Rodems & Cook, PA, Case No. 05-CA-7205. A copy of the Order To Show Cause is enclosed.

Enclosed you will find Plaintiff's Motion For Appointment of Counsel, and Memorandum of Law. Exhibits 1-45 are on the enclosed CD.

I have been found indigent in the following cases:

Florida Supreme Court, Case No. SC11-858
Second District Court of Appeal, Cases 2D10-5197, 2D10-5529 and 2D11-2127
A Verified Motion With Affidavit To Proceed In Forma Pauperis in Hillsborough County was submitted May 16, 2011, copy enclosed.

Thank you.

OFFICE OF THE PUBLIC DEFENDER'S MOTION FOR CLARIFICATION

COMES NOW, the undersigned on behalf of the Office of the Public Defender, to seek clarification of a Clerk's Determination dated May 27, 2011, attached hereto as Exhibit A, allegedly appointing the Office of the Public Defender on behalf of the plaintiff, Neil Gillespie, in this cause based upon the following:

1. An Application for Criminal Indigent Status and Clerk's Determination attached hereto as Exhibit A purports to appoint the Office of the Public Defender to represent the plaintiff in this cause.

2. It appears from the docket in this cause that Neil Gillespie is the plaintiff in this cause and that he is before the Court based upon an Order to Show Cause.

3. Section 27.51, Florida Statutes, sets forth the duties of the Public Defender. The duties of the Public Defender under Section 27.51(b)(3), Florida Statutes, provide that the Public Defender can be appointed in an action for criminal contempt; however, there is no basis for a belief that the plaintiff in this cause, Neil Gillespie, is facing an action for criminal contempt.

WHEREFORE, the undersigned seeks to clarify with the Court the applicability of the Application for Criminal Indigent Status and Clerk's Determination as evidenced in Exhibit A, attached hereto.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that a copy of the foregoing motion has been furnished to Neil Gillespie, 8092 SW 115th Loop, Ocala, FL 34481, Ryan C. Rodems, Esq. of Barker, Rodems & Cook, P.A., 400 North Ashley Drive, Suite 2100, Tampa, FL 33602, and to Richard L. Coleman, Esq., P.O. Box 5437, Valdosta, GA 31603, by hand or U.S. mail delivery, this 1st day of June, 2011.

Dear Mr. Rodems:

Please be advised that I've been hired for a limited purpose by Mr. Neil Gillespie relative to the above-specified case. This will also confirm the telephone message I left with your paralegal, Susan, a few minutes ago.

I would like to discuss this case with you at your earliest convenience. Probably the best time to reach me would be tomorrow from around 11 AM to approximately 12:30 PM. If that time frame works for you, I shall look forward to hearing from you then.

Thank you.....Eugene

Dear Mr. Rodems:

I telephoned and e-mailed you on June 6, 2011 regarding the above-specified case. I also spoke with your paralegal, Susan, on that same date, and again approximately 45 minutes ago. I have not yet had the pleasure of your response.

Perhaps I can make my request a lot more simple: I am requesting a copy of the writ which apparently was docketed on June 1, 2011 (Mr. Gillespie has not received a copy of same). If you or your assistant would be so kind so as to attach a copy to an e-mail and shoot it over to me I would be most appreciative.

I am looking forward to your response. Thank you.....Eugene

Sorry it's taken me longer than I thought to get back to you.

This kind of talk isn't good Neil. You're not at the end of the line until you're at the end of the line. And I don't see you being any closer to the end than I am.

As for a new agreement, this is my suggestion. Give me another $1,000.00 on July 1, and I won't take another dime from you. Consider it a flat fee to get you out from under this writ (BUT WITHOUT entering an appearance in this state court case) and/or to file a Chapter 7 bankruptcy for you. The only other things you would have to pay for if we go the bankruptcy route (and these are NOT my fees, they are costs) is the filing fee of $299.00, a credit report fee of $30.00, and the credit counseling fee(s) which will be at most $80.00 (sometimes you can find a cheaper vendor). Based on what I know right now about your case, your debt to this asshole Rodems would be discharged in your Chapter 7 bankruptcy, and he would get NOTHING from you.

Take care, I'll be asleep in an hour, but I will be calling Judge Arnold's chambers first thing tomorrow.

Eugene,

Thanks for your call earlier. I appreciate your comments. There are other matters to consider. My initial brief is due in the 2dDCA June 22, 2011, see attached. I must work on that ASAP. After the brief is filed I would like to leave the state while you try to resolve something, but I don't have any funds. I am not turning myself in. So I'll hide the best I can. I've made my peace with the lord. I'm 55 years-old but feel like 85. I'm at the end of the line. It would be great to resolve this matter, but opposing does not want that to happen, and the courts are cooperating with him. I agree to modify our agreement as you see fit. I'm open to any suggestions not covered. Thank you.

1 explain that.

2 MR. GILLESPIE: I'm not appearing in any court
3 without an attorney in Hillsborough County.

4 MR. CASTAGLIUOLO: All right.

5 MR. GILLESPIE: Every time I do they just 6 don't listen to anything I have to say and they do
7 whatever opposing counsel wants.

8 MR. CASTAGLIUOLO: Well, this guy Dunlap's
9 boss served the Order to Show Cause on you. And 10 the word is with the Sheriff's office that you
11 are -- there's something wrong with you mentally.
12 And she said that if Dunlap goes out there he's to 13 always have two deputies with him at all times. So 14 you really must have put the fear of God in these 15 people. I'm doing the best I can with this but --

16 MR. GILLESPIE: Well, I don't know where they 17 got that from, other than the fact that I am
18 disabled with depression and post traumatic stress
19 disorder. And that's a matter in the court file.
20 So --

21 MR. CASTAGLIUOLO: Okay. Well, I don't know
22 where they got it from either and I don't care.
23 You know, I don't make any judgments about people
24 based on what their mental problems are. Because 25 if you -- if you're going to measure people by that

1 yardstick then I'm not going to pass the test
2 either. But the thing is, we have to deal with 3 what we, you know, the situation as it exists right
4 now. So I want you to just like take a couple
5 hours and think about it, because I got other
6 things to do anyway. And then call me later on 7 this afternoon and tell me how you want to proceed
8 with this.

9 MR. GILLESPIE: Well, my initial -- I can give 10 you an initial reaction right now is to leave
11 Florida until you can get some kind of hearing
12 arranged. I'm not going to jail, I'll tell you
13 that right now.

14 MR. CASTAGLIUOLO: Okay. Well, then you've 15 already -- you already know what you want to do.
16 That's fine.

17 MR. GILLESPIE: Now, that's just my initial 18 reaction. Okay. I'm just telling you that's my 19 initial reaction.

20 MR. CASTAGLIUOLO: Well, most of us are pretty
21 good with our initial reactions, you know, rarely 22 do they change. But call me in a couple hours and 23 let me know, and then I'm going to start moving on 24 whatever it is that we're going to do. And you
25 know, that's it for right now.

OK, cool, just get me that writ ASAP and I will try to get a hearing on a Uniform Motion Calendar, otherwise you'll be waiting until probably November for a hearing date

Please also be aware, well in advance, that I will be out of the office the last week of July and the first week of August. Probably more time because they just found a lesion on my kidney. This is how it started for my brother, and it ended with him being dead at age 45. So I don't walk around afraid, that's not my style, but let's just say I'm concerned. All the more reason why I want to get this writ off your back ASAP.

As for the guy pounding on your door: I'm not clairvoyant, but if he was law enforcement, he'd probably leave a card, most likely it has to do with the foreclosure

I like this letter. It's concise, and it contains multiple exhibits indicating a spirit of cooperation with Rodems' discovery requests. I'm not carting a 51 page document with me tomorrow (3 copies no less) to give to people who aren't going to read it anyway. But I will hand up a copy of this letter to Judge Arnold.

The game plan is this: "Judge, I've prevailed upon Mr. Gillespie to appear for a deposition. Due to his health issues and my health issues, I am requesting 60 days to get this done. Will you please vacate/quash the writ, with a specific instruction to law enforcement to rescind the warrant?"

Then, in the next 60 days, you file a Chapter 7 bankruptcy (presuming this trust of yours which everyone's talking about doesn't mean you don't qualify under the means test), and abracadabra, Rodems and this state court lawsuit are history.

Dear Eugene,

You are hereby terminated from the agreement signed June 3, 2011 for "Representation limited to preparation for and attendance at deposition, the date of which has yet to be determined." A copy of the agreement is attached.

The agreement is not working. Kindly return my $1,000 retainer immediately.

It appears from your communication that you either underestimated this assignment or changed your mind. Either way you are relieved of your obligation under the agreement. You claim to have received 32 emails and 96 attachments. I believe most of the emails and virtually all of the attachments were provided at your request as background information in this matter. It was up to you to decide under our flat fee agreement what, if anything, was relevant to your "preparation for and attendance at deposition". A few emails were merely to keep you in the loop about developments in this case.

Concerning disability, you have Dr. Huffer's medical report, one of the symptoms of PTSD is hypervigilance. I'm sure you would not fault a blind person for tripping over objects in his path; please extend that same courtesy to one who is hypervigilant with PTSD.

You have repeatedly expressed unhappiness with our flat fee arrangement and asserted your claim to an hourly rate of $295, but that is not part of our agreement. As stated before, I learned my lesson about hourly rates - I don't contract for legal services that way, it is an invitation for waste and always leads to conflict. I am indigent and paid you over half my monthly disability income for this month.

While you may not find this case financially rewarding, someone else may. An unemployed lawyer may be happy to spend a week on this matter to earn a flat fee of $1,000. I'm still getting responses from my ad on craigslist.

The reason for the volume of documents in this case, and level of animosity, is that opposing counsel's exercise of independent professional judgment is materially limited by his own interest and conflict. Until that issue is addressed this is not a legitimate legal proceeding, but as you noted in your email of June 5th, a pissing contest.

If you would like to take this case in its entirety, full representation on a contingent fee basis, I would be happy to have you represent me. But be forwarded, Mr. Rodems has poisoned this matter and the court is cooperating with him through the misuse and denial of judicial process under the color of law.

Whatever you decide, rest assured that I do not hold any animosity toward you - no bar complaint or legal claims will follow and I will put that in writing.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Neil Gillespie

Dear Mr. Gillespie:

This e-mail message that I am typing right now is the 32nd e-mail to transpire between us since we met last Friday, a mere 6 days ago. Most of those e-mails are from you to me and, incredibly, your e-mails to me contained a whopping 96 (96 !!!) attachments, many of which were lengthy.

Mr. Gillespie, I am getting very close to the limit of my patience with you. Do you think you are somehow entitled to this amount of my time, uncompensated ??? Do you really think for one minute that a Judge will require that I spend as much time as I have with you for nothing?!?!? If so, you are sadly mistaken.

This will be my last e-mail to you unless and until I have NEW news about your case. Similarly, I strongly suggest that you not send me any more e-mails or call me again unless and until you have something NEW to tell me about your case (and by NEW, I mean any event that might occur from this moment going forward). Do NOT call me to "check" to see if Mr. Rodems has responded to me. IF AND WHEN he responds, you will hear from me within the hour of his response.

One would think that due process would require that you receive a copy of this mysterious "writ" in your mailbox. If you do, please send me a copy via e-mail attachment.

I will now, once again, call Mr. Rodems and e-mail him as well. You will hear from me IF AND WHEN I have NEW news for you.

Thank you.....Eugene

Neil, I do NOT want to do battle with you, I do NOT battle with my clients. In 23+ years of doing this, I have had maybe 3 client complaints, and I prevailed on all 3 because all 3 were found to be groundless.

As I told you when you hired me, I pride myself on getting along with my clients. But your manner is very hard to take. You are obsessed with this matter and you expect me to share your obsession. Unfortunately, I cannot, because to do so would mean that I have lost my objectivity, and if I lose my objectivity, I will not be serving your best interests.

I want to get this guy off your back, but as you know well by now, the wheels of justice move slowly. What's more, Rodems has not even extended me the professional courtesy of returning my telephone calls. So if you want me to help you, we'll have to do it another way. But it all starts with obtaining a copy of that writ.

It's totally your call, but there will be no refund whatsoever of any monies paid. Furthermore, I invite you to reply to this e-mail if you do so in a civil, professional manner.

Eugene,
The deposition dates from 2008 when Mr. Bauer represented me. Then nothing happened in the case for a year, from August 13, 2008 when Mr. Bauer moved to withdrawal until Judge Barton granted the withdrawal October 1, 2009. Then Mr. Rodems scheduled a deposition in December 2009 and another in June 2010. I responded to each. Then Mr. Rodems wrote a letter to Judge Cook July 12, 2010. I refuted that by notice July 27, 2010. Rodems had all the documents and/or responses at that point as shown in the pleading. Judge Cook issued the contempt order September 30, 2010. So it all of this dates pretty far back.

EXHIBIT

See the July 27, 2010 Notice Of Fraud On The Court by Ryan C. Rodems - Discovery, w exhibits. That is the latest. Mr. Rodems misrepresented to Judge Cook my discovery responses. This 51 page document is an attempt to set the record straight.

Let me know what else you need.

Eugene,

Thank you for your call, and for entering your appearance. I appreciate your effort on my behalf. Attached you will find the following:

1. 2010, 07-27-10, Notice Of Fraud On The Court by Ryan C. Rodems - Discovery, w exhibits.

Mr. Rodems misrepresented to Judge Cook my discovery responses. This 51 page document is an attempt to set the record straight. I am including the following separate components which should be less confusing even though it is more documents:

discovery and response, 2008, 10-01-08, Robert Bauer discovery and response, 2008, 10-10-08, request for production discovery and response, 2009, 10-13-09, amended deposition duces tecum discovery and response, 2010, 06-01-10, notice of deposition duces tecum discovery and response, 2010, 06-01-10, sec 56.29(2)

2. 2011, 05-27-11, NJG to Judge Arnold, cannot appear unrepresented, w enc. This is my letter to Judge Arnold informing the Court that I cannot appear without counsel.

3. 2009, 12-15-09, Plaintiff's motion hold Ryan Rodems in Contempt with exhibits

2010, 06-14-10, P's motion cancel deposition duces tecum (Jun-18-10), order of protection

Mr. Rodems contends that I failed to attend two properly noticed depositions; this is false. The deposition set in October 2009 violated Judge Barton's stay order following Mr. Bauer's departure from the case. As for the second deposition, I moved for an order of protection.

4. The Court is concerned about telephone recording because I filed a notice of telephone recording. (attached). This is due to the fact that in the past when I spoke with Mr. Rodems by phone, he would later misstate the call and file a false affidavit with the court. Mr. Rodems stopped doing that once the calls were recorded since a transcript could be submitted to impeach him.

I will contact Dempster Berrhill Court Reporters to have the hearing tomorrow covered. Thank you.

Was able to see a small part of 2nd attachment. My response to the Court will be forthcoming next week. From this point forward, communicate with me only via US Mail. Any other form will be reported to Marion County Sheriff as criminal harassment, & trust me, I will prosecute.

CIVIL THEFT NOTICE

TO: Neil J. Gillespie
LAST KNOWN ADDRESS: 8092 S. W. 115th Loop
Ocala, FL 34481

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that you have obtained professional services from me by false pretenses, fraud, and/or deception, in violation of Florida Statute 812.012(6)(b), for which you owe me $1,000.00, as you promised and agreed to pay me. Section 772.11 Florida Statutes (2011) permits me to make claim against you for triple the amount of damages sustained by me by my deprivation by you of the sum total of $1,000.00. TRIPLE THE SUM OF $1,000.00 IS $3,000.00.

This is my demand that you pay me the sum of $1,000.00 within 30 days after your receipt of this notice.

Dear Mr. Castagliuolo:

In response to your "Civil Theft Notice" dated July 1, 2011, counsel has advised me that your claim is legally insufficient, therefore I decline payment.

You are in breach of contract. You committed legal malpractice. You failed to prepare for the deposition. You failed to represent me in bankruptcy. You failed to timely obtain a copy of the writ of bodily attachment that was available from Judge Arnold at all times, according to Major Livingston. Instead you "threw me under the bus" and accepted a walk-away settlement that you were specifically instructed, in writing, not to accept. You are also in violation of the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA) relative to the lack of ADA accommodation(s) during the deposition. You failed to engage in negotiations with Mr. Rodems beneficial to me such as, but not limited to, the payment of my attorneys fees. You failed to disclose a conflict of interest with your daughter who works for the Public Defender previously appointed to represent me. The foregoing is representative of, but not inclusive of, every claim I may have against you.

You failed your duty as an attorney to report Mr. Rodems' conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice, Rodems' misconduct under Bar Rule 4-8.4(d), when Rodems and his staff failed to cooperate with you, failed to return your phone calls, or failed to provide you a copy of the writ of bodily attachment upon your request.

You were terminated from representing me by email June 9, 2011 at 12:44 PM. You refused to provide any refund of advance payment. You took advantage of my status as a person subject to arrest on a writ of bodily attachment and threatened me, continued the representation, and extorted from me the promise of more money and other such.

Sincerely,

Neil Gillespie

RE: One-Time Nonnegotiable Offer of Settlement

Dear Mr. Gillespie:

Pursuant to the Civil Theft Notice which was served upon you via Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, on July 5, 2011, you had thirty (30) days thereafter to comply with the demand contained in said Notice. Accordingly, your compliance was required no later than August 4, 2011. Today is August 5, 2011, and you have failed to comply. Furthermore, you faxed me a letter yesterday in which you stated explicitly that you "decline payment." Therefore, given the foregoing facts and circumstances, my Civil Theft Claim against you has been perfected, and you are now indebted to me in the amount of $3,000.00 (THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS).

You can count on me to aggressively pursue collection of that sum from you. However, in an effort to avoid further litigation and to put a permanent end to our relationship, I am making a one-time, non-negotiable settlement offer to you, as follows: I will accept $500.00 from you in full satisfaction of my claim against you for attorneys' fees due and owing, as long as I am in receipt of said sum on or before November 11, 2011. This expansive deadline for acceptance is designed to give you plenty of time to accumulate that sum.

You can accept my offer by simply tendering $500.00 to me on or before November 11, 2011. If you fail to do so, then you will have rejected my offer, and in that event, I shall file suit against you to recover the full $3,000.00 that you owe me on Monday, November 14, 2011. I have been very successful collecting unpaid attorneys' fees, and I am quite confident that I will be equally successful obtaining a judgment against you. If you think I'm bluffing, try me.

OTHER THAN TO ACCEPT MY OFFER AS SPECIFIED ABOVE OR TO CONTACT ME THROUGH YOUR ATTORNEY, YOU ARE HEREBY WARNED NOT TO CONTACT ME YOURSELF VIA ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER. YOU ARE FURTHER WARNED THAT I SHALL TAKE APPROPRIATE ACTION IF I SHOULD SEE ANYTHING ABOUT ME ON YOUR RIDICULOUS WEBSITE. YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED. CONDUCT YOURSELF ACCORDINGLY.

Sincerely,

EUGENE P. CASTAGLIUOLO

Dear Mr. Gillespie:

As I anticipated, you're cowering in your house behind masked windows, hiding from the mailman, and refusing to accept my certified mail. No worries, I'm flexible and resourceful, so please find it attached to this e-mail.

Oh, and by the way, I have instructed the support staff in my building to refuse your certified mail. Similarly, you are hereby advised that you are not to ever again send me ANYTHING via facsimile transmission. Should you persist in doing so, I will report your willful ignorance of my demand to the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office.

Thank you.
