Dear Chief Inspector General Miguel:

This is in response to a letter dated August 14, 2014 by Heather Robinson, Investigations Manager, Office of the Chief Inspector General, RE: Chief Inspector General Case # 201408130011, emailed to me by Rebekah Weeks, Inspector Specialist, on your behalf.

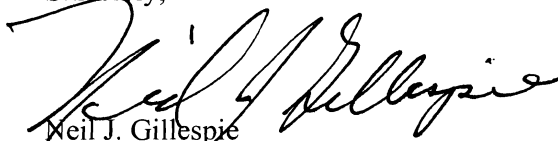

The letter falsely states in paragraph one, "The Office of Chief Inspector General received your complaint and additional information on August 13, 2014, in which you expressed various concerns about the Florida Bar, possible misconduct of attorneys and judges regarding court matters, and the handling of public records requests by multiple organizations."

I did not make a complaint to you or the Office of Chief Inspector General on or about August 13, 2014. Ms. Miguel, why did you create a false public record stating that I made a complaint?

Your false public record appears on the letterhead of Governor Rick Scott, Office of the Governor, State of Florida, The Capital, Tallahassee, Florida. The letter was emailed to me by Rebekah Weeks, Inspector Specialist, on your behalf, in response to my general distribution email, Subject: The Florida Bar is a "subversive organization" under F.S. § 876.26, and "shall be dissolved" as provided by statute. My general distribution email was not a complaint to you or the Office of the Chief Inspector General. A reasonable person could see it was not an IG complaint.

See enclosed Declaration of Neil J. Gillespie In Re Chief Inspector General Case # 201408130011.

Sincerely,

Neil J. Gillespie

RE: Chief Inspector General Case # 201408130011

Dear Mr. Gillespie:

The Office of the Chief Inspector General received your complaint and additional information on August 13, 2014, in which you expressed various concerns about the Florida Bar, possible misconduct of attorneys and judges regarding court matters, and the handling of public records requests by multiple organizations.

The purpose of the Office of the Chief Inspector General is to carry out the Chief Inspector General's statutorily required investigative duties and responsibilities, and to promote accountability, integrity, and efficiency in the agencies under the jurisdiction of the Governor. The Office of the Chief Inspector General also conducts investigations and reviews for the Executive Office of the Governor. The Office of the Chief Inspector General derives its authority from Sections 14.32 and 20.055, Florida Statutes, which are enclosed for your information.

Please be advised that this office does not have jurisdiction over court matters, attorneys or judges. You may wish to report your concerns about attorney misconduct to The Florida Bar by calling (850) 561-5600, or by writing to the following address:

The Florida Bar
651 E. Jefferson St.
Tallahassee, FL 32399

Additionally, you may wish to report concerns regarding misconduct by a judge to the Judicial Qualifications Commission by calling (850) 488-1581, or by writing to the following address:

Judicial Qualifications Commission
1110 Thomasville Road
Tallahassee, FL 32303

In regards to your concerns regarding the mishandling of your public records requests, you may also wish to contact the Office of the Attorney General. The Office of the Attorney General offers a Mediation Program which assists in resolving public access disputes. You may contact the Mediation Program by calling (850) 245-0140, or by writing to the following address:

Please see attached PDF documents and information below. Thank you. Neil J. Gillespie.

On information and belief, employees of The Florida Bar have not executed loyalty oaths required under F.S. § 876.05 Public employees; oath, as recipients of public funds from the state of Florida that they support the Constitution of the United States, and of the State of Florida. Therefore, inter alia, The Florida Bar is a "subversive organization" under F.S. § 876.26, and "shall be dissolved" as provided by statute.

The Second District Court of Appeal granted my application for order in case no. 2D10-5197 on August 12, 2014, and delivered the file today August 13, 2014. Attached please find,

Hopefully that means appointments to replace any conspirators with The Florida Bar, Florida Attorney General et al. in the fraud and impairment of SCOTUS Petition No. 12-7747. <http://www.supremecourt.gov/Search.aspx?FileName=/docketfiles/12-7747.htm>

876.26 Unlawful for subversive organizations to exist or function.—It shall be unlawful for any subversive organization or foreign subversive organization to exist or function in the state and any organization which by a court of competent jurisdiction is found to have violated the provisions of this section shall be dissolved, and if it be a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the state, a finding by a court of competent jurisdiction that it has violated the provisions of this section shall constitute legal cause for forfeiture of its charter and its charter shall be forfeited, and all funds, books, records, and files of every kind and all other property of any organization found to have violated the provisions of this section shall be seized by and for the state, the funds to be deposited in the State Treasury, and the books, records, files, and other property to be turned over to the Attorney General of Florida.

876.05 Public employees; oath.—

(1) All persons who now or hereafter are employed by or who now or hereafter are on the payroll of the state, or any of its departments and agencies, subdivisions, counties, cities, school boards and districts of the free public school system of the state or counties, or institutions of higher learning, except candidates for federal office, are required to take an oath before any person duly authorized to take acknowledgments of instruments for public record in the state in the following form:

I, [John F. Harkness], a citizen of the State of Florida and of the United States of America, and being employed by or an officer of [The Florida Bar] and a recipient of public funds as such employee or officer, do hereby solemnly swear or affirm that I will support the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Florida.

(2) Said oath shall be filed with the records of the governing official or employing governmental agency prior to the approval of any voucher for the payment of salary, expenses, or other compensation.

876.06 Discharge for refusal to execute.—If any person required by ss. 876.05-876.10 to take the oath herein provided for fails to execute the same, the governing authority under which such person is employed shall cause said person to be immediately discharged, and his or her name removed from the payroll, and such person shall not be permitted to receive any payment as an employee or as an officer where he or she was serving.

876.08 Penalty for not discharging.—Any governing authority or person, under whom any employee is serving or by whom employed who shall knowingly or carelessly permit any such employee to continue in employment after failing to comply with the provisions of ss. 876.05-876.10, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

876.09 Scope of law.—

(1) The provisions of ss. 876.05-876.10 shall apply to all employees and elected officers of the state, including the Governor and constitutional officers and all employees and elected officers of all cities, towns, counties, and political subdivisions, including the educational system.

(2) This act shall take precedence over all laws relating to merit, and of civil service law.

876.10 False oath; penalty.—If any person required by the provisions of ss. 876.05-876.10 to execute the oath herein required executes such oath, and it is subsequently proven that at the time of the execution of said oath said individual was guilty of making a false statement in said oath, he or she shall be guilty of perjury.
